

Need Kindling? Arsenal Offers 100 Tons Free

Free from powder contamination, 100 tons of wooden crates, designated by the government as kindling wood, is available without charge at the Elwood reservation of the Joliet arsenal, it was reported today by officials.

The last time such salvage material was offered it cost those picking it up $1.50 a net ton, but this time those who want the wood can visit the arsenal and load it into their own trucks, cars or other vehicles and have it "gratis."

The wood is at the salvage yard of the Elwood unit, located approximately six miles north of Wilmington, 15 miles south of Joliet, and a half mile east of route 66-A. It can be picked up anytime between 8:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. Mondays thru Fridays until the supply is exhausted. More information can be obtained by calling Frank Heinle, 2-6661, extension 2209.
